BRONCHITIS CONQUERED

Royersford, Pa., Man Tells How.

At this season of year with such sudden changes, it is so easy to take cold, and almost before one is aware there is inflammation in the bronchial tubes—a hard cough and unless checked in time chronic pulmonary troubles may result.

Townsend Young of Royersford, Pa., says: "A severe bronchial trouble contracted caused me much difficulty about breathing. My chest felt clogged up and there was considerable soreness. I tried different remedies without help; but I am glad to say that Vinol cured my bronchial trouble which had lasted for three months. My breathing is all right and the soreness entirely gone from my chest."

Vinol contains the curative, healing principles of fresh cods' livers (without oil) and tonic iron. We guarantee it to be delicious in taste and to satisfy you with its medicinal effects.

P. S. If you have any skin trouble try Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

FIVE-ACT DRAMA BY HIGH-SCHOOL TALENT.

Fanchon, the Cricket, a domestic drama in five acts, will be given by the students of the highschool Friday night, May 8th. This play was chosen by Miss Merrill after a great deal of reading on her part, and weeks of hard work will bring the production up to the high mark already set by those under her training. The story of the play concerns the superstitious people of the country districts in France. Fanchon is the grand-daughter of old Fadet with whom she lives, but Fadet is considered a witch by the community and the boys and girls fear Fanchon because of this. Landry and Didier, two brothers of old Father Barbeaud, although somewhat fearful of Fanchon, finally fell in love with her. The entire action centers around this affair between Landry and Fanchon and while parts of it are amusing, some of it is dramatic and pathetic. The parts have been chosen from students of the entire school with a view of their fitness to do the work and the public may feel certain to witness a first-class amateur production.

PATRICK McCARTHY, OLD RESPECTED RESIDENT, DEAD.

Wednesda, afternoon Patrick McCarthy, an esteemed resident of this city for nearly forty years, passed away at his home on East Bradford street after a short illness.

Mr. McCarthy was a native of Ireland, aged 82 years, Until a few years ago he had followed his occupation of shoemaker, but with the coming on of old age he laid aside his last and spent his declining days in rest.

The old gentleman—a gentleman in the true meaning of the word—was respected by everyone. He was quiet, unoffensive, law-abiding and a kind and thoughtful neighbor. Many will mourn his passing away, although he had almost lived the span of life that is allotted to man.

The deceased is survived by his faithful wife, his companion of many years There are no other near relatives.

Mr. McCarthy had been for many years an active member of the old fire department.

OLD ESTATE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

Tuesday the real estate and personal property of the late Emeline Stafford was sold by Administrator Thomas Stafford. The real estate consists of the land on which the Pioneer Stable stands on Main street, and the residence of deceased on Stambaugh street. The San Mateo County Savings Bank purchased the Main-street property for $5980, which is the amount of a mortgage held by that institution.

Mrs. Rose M. Sears was the purchaser of the home place, with furniture for $1585. The sale is subject to confirmation by the Superior Court.

The Pioneer Stable is one of the oldest buildings in this city, being built in the early 50s, and is a well known landmark. It was the only livery stable here for many years.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL PUPILS AID "SWAT THE FLY" CAMPAIGN

The mischievous house fly came in for a good swat at the grammar school during the week when numerous compositions were written about the fly by pupils in the variousgrades. The children were invited to prepare papers on the subject and the way they have acquitted themselves would do credit to persons much older. The following are a few of the compositions:

* * *

The following composition was written by Nyda Lampkin, pupil of the grammar school fourth grade

We all know the fly is a very dirty and dangerous insect. He lives in filth and dirt, in garbage cans and in dirty stables. The fly brings sickness and disease to the homes. He goes in all dirty places and then comes to you. That is how the diseases are spread. He should not be allowed in the room where the sick patient is, for he will go to another house ang give them the diseas,e the sick person has, typhoid fever, small pox and other diseases. Every stable or barn where animals are kept should be thoroughly cleaned with some disinfectant so that it will not bring flies. If someone is walking down the street and spits on the sdiwealk and a lady comes along and drags her skirt in it, that is another way diseases are spread.

The fly comes to the table when we are eating our dinner and bathes in the milk, wipes his feet on the butter, lays its eggs in the sugar, and then we come along and put the milk in our tea, and put the butter on our bread, we put the sugar in our tea and the flies eggs are in the sugar. The fly is about the most annoying insect there is besides the mosquitoes. There are many ways in which to kill flies but we cannot get rid of them all. If we can get them and kill them when they are young it is better then they will not have any more. We get fly paper to kill them but some of them are too wise, they don't get on it. We get fly killers and other things. There is another way to kill them. Take and close the kitchen tightly and then put some carbolic acid on a hot shovel and put it where the flies will get it. When they are killed they should be taken up andburned.

* * *

The following composition is by Stanley Marcus of the sixth grade.

The fly, although many people think is very harmless, is one of man's greatest enemies. This bug has long been studied by noted naturalists. It is pronounced a very dangerous bug carying all kinds of diseases.

The fly is raised in the dirtiest and filthiest place on earth . It creeps over a person with typhord feaver, gathers the germs and then lights on a perfectly well person who speedily gets the disease.

As the fly lives in filth consequently he is covered with the same. He then comes in the open window when the house-wife is setting the table. He lightg on the butter leaving his germs behind him. He walks on the bread, and bathes in the water, and milk. He flies in the helpless babies eyes leaving the child to have trouble with them.

The fly besides bringing diseases is very annoying, not only to human beings, but to animals such as the horse.

Why should so many people die from this terrible bug? Is there no way to stop it? I should say there is. Where there's a will there's a way. If people did not leave windows open without screens the flies could not get in. Then again if the door wasn't left open there would be no means for the fly to get in that way. If the fly should ger in you should kill it, or chase it out. Then why lease the filth uncovered, so the flies can gather it. and breed in it? Think how many lives you might save by covering it. Think of the expense you save. Think of the annoyance you would not have to suffer.

If the people would only get to gether and start a "Fly Killer Army," it would be as useful as a army that protects a government. Flies would be soon banished, and needless expense and sufferiny would be saved. If people would only follow these rules flies would be a thing of the past.

Tax Collector McSweeney reports tax collections Monday night, the last day before delinquency, close to $200,000. This is considered a very good showing and will leave a small delinquent list.

Miss Frances Murray returned Tuesday from a pleasant visit to Los Angeles.

HOT WATER

The economy of heating water with GAS is apparent when it is considered that you consume fuel only when you need hot water.

It is not necessary to keep a fire going all duy to get hot water now and then. Both health and cleanliness demand hot water. And the easiest, most economical and most satisfying way to get it is to use GAS.

As the storm waters rapidly increased the prsesure the structure began to leak near the foundation and before the damage could be repaired, the structure gave away.

* * *

While on his way to become naturalized as a citizen of the United States, George Di Grazia, a ranch hand, shot and instantly killed Alfredo Rovari, his foreman, Tuesday morning, and fired twice at the victim's brother, August Rovari. Calm and unconcerned, Grazia was captured an hour later by Traffic Officer Fred Vallejo on a mountain road, where he was continuing his journey to Redwood City to take out his citizenship papers.

Grazia admitted the killing of Rovari to Sheriff J. H. Mansfield. He said that Rovari would not permit two other ranch hands to leave work while they went to Redwood City and acted as sponsors for him while he was being examined for citizenship. They quarreled on this point and Grazia said that Rovari was reaching for a gun when he shot him. Investigation revealed that Rovari's gun was locked in his trunk.

The tragedy occurred on the Schubert ranch, about one mile south of Halfmoon Bay, about 5 o'clock in the morning. August Rovari, a brother of the dead man, ran to the cabin when he heard the shots and was fired on twice as he entered the door.

A traveling photographer took a picture of the ranch hands Monday afternoon. Many of the men held guns, and among them were Grazia and Rovari, who stood side by side with their revolvers drawn.

Grazia is being held in the county jail at Redwood City. He will be defended by A. Mansfield. The body of Rovari has been taken to San Mateo. Rovari was unmarried and has relatives in Italy.

The First Principle
Of the Salaried Man Should Be—
TO SAVE
It is possible that luck may play an important part in the quick making of fortunes, but it has nothing to do with fortunes accumulated from the savings of labor.
A bank account, however, will be of assistance and the young man or woman who will take this method of saving from his or he salary will eventually reach the desired goal.
This bank welcomes the accounts of those people who are working on salary and have a desire to save a part of it, We pay 4%, compounded every six months.

There are a great many Beers brewed throughout our country and put upon the market under the brand of "Bohemian." For the purpose of individualizing our product and also for the reason to link it closer to the name of our plant, we have decided to re-christen our popular "Bohemian" and call it plain "Buffalo Lager."
On April 1st of this year our new Bottled Beer will be put on the market dressed in the New Label. It is our endeavor that the new label shall represent extreme care in brewing and expert inspection at every stage of production from the raw material to the packing for marketing. Only the best materials are used for the manufacture of "Buffalo Lager," which coupled with up-to-date methods in the art of brewing will present to the beer drinking public a Table Beer "par excellence."
We thank you for the many past favors received at your hands and sincerely solicit the continuance of your patronage.

THE VALUE OF "HIGH ART"
Or Whrt Is In a Name
"HIGH ART" is the name of a make of clothing that stands for quality and value.
It is a make that is not well advertised because the manufacturers are conservative.

They believe in putting their money into the fabric, rather than into advertising, whether they are right in doing thus is another question, but one fact is certain:
THEIR GARMENTS CAN NOT BE EQUALED ANYWHERE.
See them for yourselves.

SAN PEDRO PUBLIC SCHOOL DEDICATED

County School Superintendent Roy W. Cloud Delivers the Dedicatory Address.

Last Sunday the trustees of San Pedro school district dedicated their beautiful new building. Many of the prominent people of the county were present. Under direction of Trustee Fahy assisted by the popular and efficient teacher, Miss Madden, a most attractive program of music, song and recitation was rendered. Among those who made speeches were H. H. Smith, W. J. Savage, P. P. Chamberlain, Jas. T. Casey, Franklin Swart, James Callan, J. J. Fahy. Superintendent of Schools Roy W. Cloud delivered the following appropriate and well timed address.

Nineteen hundred years ago the greatest teacher this world has ever known, gathered a little band of children around him and taught them and said to those who wished to hold conversation with him, "Let the little ones come unto me." Since that time the little ones have been the chief concern of all who follow in the footsteps of that meek and lowly teacher. You may notice that only in a Christian nation is education at its highest state of development. It is therefore fitting and proper that this Sabbath day should have been selected as the day upon which these dedication ceremonies should have been observed.

As we stand here upon the very western edge of our continent with the dashing of the mighty Pacific making music for our ears we are conscious that we have many things for which we must be thankful. If we stop to think we will recognize that there is nothing for which we should have greater cause of thankfulness than for our public schools. Schools where our boys and girls may go and learn lessons of helpfulness, lessons of hopefulness and lessons of civic righteousness.

In standing before you this morning I wish to congratulate the people of this community upon the acquisition of a school building which is worthy of the highest praise. Here your children are not only housed in a beautiful appearing structure but they have also everything that helps to make it healthful and inviting. In such a setting as this your school is a place of which we should give more than passing thought. It was not the work of a moment. It was not wished for and erected in the twinkling of an eye. No magic ring was touched and the wish expressed which brought it here. It is however the creature of much thought and planning, and the ring that did bring, was the ring of the hammer as it drove in the nails to build it true and hold it fast.

The work and consideration given to this building and its location by your trustees are to which you should give more than mere notice, because they have freely and cheerfully given of their time and experience that your children might have the very best. It would surprise you to know of the many times your clerk, Mr. Fahey, came all the way to Redwood City to consult with me and to seek advice on perplexing problems, and he came not with the expectation of receiving any other thanks or remuneration than the knowledge that he was performing his stewardship faithfully.

I believe also, although I have not had time to make a detailed examination, that the operative workmen who labored here have done their work well. It is apleasant thing to know that our artesans who work upon our public buildings usually try to do their work faithfully and I believe that the intelligence and faithfulness with which they work is the result of a common school education which they received in one of our public schools.

A school house in a community stands for the best and for the highest interests, not only in this locality but the whole body politic. Here our boys andgirls are to receive those inspirations and dream those dreams of childhood which are going to prepare them for the sterner duties of life. Here they will receive the fundamental truths which will tide them over the schools of experience which will be their lot in later years.

This building also should be a source of local pride to the people of this community and the children should not be the only ones to receive instruction and inspirations here. If I could make a wish for this district and know that it would come true, I could make no better one than to trust that many gatherings of the people of this community would be held here so that the people might become more closely and intimately connected and where everything that would help to make Salada a better place might be discussed.

Deep down in our beings all of us are eligious whether we belong to a church and attend its services or not and it should be part of our region to so live that we can make the community in which we reside just a little better and just a little happier for our being there. If his school could become a community center, not only for the little people, but for the older ones as well there is no question but that this would be a place of peace and contentment in even greater quantity than it now is.

Could we as critics stand off at a great distand and see all of the results and tissibilities of our public schools that would we say should be contained and what left out of our curriculum. I am sure there would be a discussion. We would say that those things which tend to make our boys and girls happier as men and women arethe things that should be taught.

The ideas of education have shifted somewhat as the times have changed. In Sparta and Athens the boys were taught to be warriors. They were so trained that their bodies were hard and sound and their minds were alert and active. Theirs was a rigirous hard training they were to be soldiers. They were to kill. A dead hero was better than a man who came through unscratched.

Our business now is to teach our boys and girls how to live, not how to die. We want them to learn the ways of peace, not the ways of war, the ways of happiness, not of sornow. We want in a word to teach them to be unselfish, God-fearing men and women who will know the right and do it. We want them to grow up to respect the rights of others, not for fear of punishment, but because it is their duty to abey the laws.

From communities such as this have come most of the men who have amounted to much in our Nation's history. I like to think of that great patriot, Nathan Hale, who graduated from and then taught a little one-room school in New London, Conn. He received his instructions and did his duty and when the time came for him to make that supremest sacrifice, to give up his life, and he was only twenty-one years old, he stretched out his arms and uttered those immortal words: "My only regret is that I have but one life to give for my country." Andthereby he made of himself an example which succeeding ages will love to honor.

We do not expect our boys and girls to lay down their lives for their country. We do hope, however that from the instruction they will receive they may the better be prepared to give their services for the betterment of the community in which they may reside.

This comunity is situated practically in the center of educational activities. Right at our very doors is the metropolis of the west with its many high and technical schools which our children may freely enter. And when they are prepared the two great universities are reaching out to take them in. When I think of the struggles that some of our parents had to secure an education, I cannot help but be thankful that we are living at a time when opporutnities are so plentiful and when our tax payers are willing to give of their means that our children may be taught.

This school I am sure isbut a forerunner of the good things that are in store for this place, for when a community will put its money into education it will of necessity reap results. There is no truer saying than that old proverb, "As ye sow, so shall ye reap." The harvest of this building will be increased activities and better manhood and womanhood for Salada Beach.

In the building of this structure, the forests have given up their trees and the earth of its minerals that our children might be served. What are our children that all of the universe is mindful of them. They are our treasures. They are where our hearts are. Most of our work and ou worry is for them. Most of our pleasure and our delight is taken from them for atbest we are only grown up children who have handed on our childish things to them. So here has been planned and built a school for this community and the dedication of it marks an epoch in the life of the San Pedro District. May the work done here make of the pupils better citizens. May the work done here give to the future citizens the seeing eye and the willing brain to fight life's battles bravely and if such is the result this building will have accomplished its purpose and justified its erection.

AUTOMOBILE VICTIM HAS HOPES FOR RECOVERY

Antoine Lescu who was run into by an automobile driven by John Rotschild, the well known wholesale grocer of San Francisco, on the highway near Atherton avenue last Wednesday evening, has some chance for recovery. After the accident the injured man was taken to the Huling Sanitarium and on the following day he was removed to the Red Cross Hospital at San Mateo. Lescu, who is employed in the French laundry at Menlo Park, started for Redwood City, accompanied by a companion, when near Atherton avenue Mr. Rotschild approached from behind in a noisless electric automobile. He was going at a low rate of speed and did not see the men until it was too late to stop the machine. Lescu was struck in the back and rolled under the car. He suffered a fracture of the breast bone, a fracture of three ribs and a fracture of the spinal column. Dr. Ross was at once called and instructed by Mr. Rotschild to spare no expense to save the injured man. Yesterday a delicate operation was performed on the patient at the Red Cross hospital by Dr. Weeks, chief emergency surgeon of San Francisco, assisted by Dr. Ross and Dr. Chapin of Redwood City. and Dr. Warren of San Mateo. The broken parts of the bone resting on the spinal cord were removed. This was a delicate undertaking but it was successfully performed and the physicians entertain hope that the patient will recover. They say he has more than a fighting chance to get well. Mr. Lescu is a hard working man and has been employed at the laundry for the past year. He is very hopeful of recovering , so much so, that he refused to make a statement yesterday to a representative of the district attorney's office, who desired to secure his account of the affair before the operation, believing that the patient might pass away under the knife. Mr. Rotchild is prostrated over the accident, regretting very much its occurence. He has left nothing undone to assist the patient and has provided everything for his comfort. Mrs. William H. Lipp Jr. has returned from a pleasant visit to her parents in Denmark. She was absent five months.

James Pipkin of Bakersfield was here calling on friends the fore part of the week. Mr. Pipkin is engaged in the drug business in the southern City.

Dr. J. L. Ross has purchased a new run-about Studebaker automobile.. It is compact and capable much speed. It is the first of its kind seen in town.

Bonita Parlor, Native Daughters, will give a card party on the evening of May 14 in Foresters' hall. Light refreshments are to be served. A pleasant evening is anticipated.

W. E. Davis of this city departed yesterday for his former home in Boston, Mass. He will spend the summer and fall months there but expects to return to Redwood City to spend the winter and to be close to the great exposition when it opens next year.

The Foresters Hall Association will give a dance on the evening of May 9th in their hall. The members of the association are using every effort to make the affair the event of the season. Good music has been engaged and no expense will be spared to provide entertainment for the guests of the evening.

With the single exception of Tuesday evening, there will be an entirely new program each day next week at the Bell Theater, all at popular prices. On Saturday and Sunday there will be some particularly strong features.

After twenty-three years tenancy of the Thiel building on Main street, Ted Thompson has moved his tonsorial parlors to the Capitol building on Broadway, where he is now prepared to greet his old patrons in a handsomely fitted shop.

Rev. Jacob Spoolman has accepted the pastorate of a flourishing Congregational church near Spokane, Washington, and will leave next week for his new charge. With his family he has been spending two months with Mrs. Spoolman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dodge. Mr. Spoolman has been preaching in Kansas for the past three years and is at pleased at being again called to a Western Church.

As a result of the recent tennis tournament held among the students of the local high school Gordon Seely a sophomore won in the final round over Paul Stevens a freshman after a hard five set match. As a result it is almost decided that the block "S" will be given to him. An attempt will be made to have Seeley play the winner of the interclass tournament of San Mateo High, sometime in the near future.

The Native Sons' grand ball in the Foresters Hall tonight will be a very welcome event to dancers and dance spectators. The dance was announced at the Odd Fellows picnic last Saturday and although the Natives ball has not been advertised as far in advance as is generally the case, a large attendance is assured on account of this advertising at the picnic and the public's knowing of the good time to behad at the Natives' balls.

John Continte swore to a warrant in the justice court Thursday for the arrest of Joe Nunes, charging him with disturbing the peace. The defendant is accused of threatening the life of Continte. Nunes plead not guilty to the charge and was allowed to depart after securing the necessary bond. He has demanded a jury trial. Judge Lampkin set the case for May 6th. The parties are neighbors and reside at Portola.

Henry Beeger, son of Mrs. H. Beeger of this city, was operated upon for appendicitis at the Red Cross hospital Thursday. The operation was performed by doctors Ross and Chidester. Late reports from the hospital indicate that young Beeger passed through the ordeal successfully and will rapidly recover. Mr Beeger graduated from Stanford last year and after his graduation went with the Stanford ball team to Japan, where the university boys scored many victories.

Mrs. Edward Barry went to San Francisco Thursday to attend the funeral of her brother, the late Carl Westergreen.

The Mount Carmel aid society gave another of its splendid card parties on Thursday, to which the people strongly responded, with the result that there were eighteen tables at play. The game was whist and the ladies' first prize went to Miss Marguerite Muller, second prize to Mrs. J. Limbough and the consolation prize to Mrs. J. Cronk. The gentlemen's first prize went to H. Leslie, the second to J. Layng and the consolation prize to Louis Parham.

ASSESSOR'S INSTRUCTIONS

To Owners of Real Estate and Personal Property.

The law requires each and every person who owns any class of property to annually, during the months of March, April or May, file a statement with the Assessor or his deputy in the county where his property is located. You should give a statement of all property owned by you on the first Monday in March at 12 o'clock m.

No change can be made by the Assessor after he turns over his books to the Board of Supervisors on the first Monday in July. The Board then sits as a Board of Equalization during the month of July.

Remember, if you fail to give in your assessment you fail to comply with the law and may cause yourself, the Assessor and Tax Collector much trouble, and very likely cause yourself expense.

It is much more satisfactory to the Assessor, as well as to yourself, to have your assessment correct when you go to pay your taxes.
